

The Daily Courant

Wednesday, February 1, 1716.

Part of the House of Commons of Ireland continuing Sabbath, Jan. 21.

O Rdered, That the Sergeant at Arms attending this House do go with the Mace to the Lobby and the Places adjacent, and Summon the Members there to attend the Service of the House immediately.

And he went accordingly, and being returned

A Motion being made, That the Resolution of this House of the 15th of November last, That whoever advised the late Queen to Prorogue the late Parliament of this Kingdom, at a Time when a Bill to Attain the Pretender was under the Consideration of the House of Commons, was an Enemy to the Succession as by Law Established in the Illustrious House of Hanover, to the Protestant Interest of this Kingdom, and a Favourer of the Pretender, be Read.

And the same was Read accordingly.

Resolved, Nemine Contradictente, That whoever advised the irregular bringing a great part of the Army in this Kingdom immediately after the Unlawful Prorogation of the late Parliament, when a Bill to Attain the Pretender was under the Consideration of the then House of Commons, were Enemies to the Protestant Succession, and designed to bring the Pretender and Popery.

Then the Question being proposed, That it is the Opinion of this House, That Arthur Earl of Anglesey, was one of the principal Advisers of Her late Majesty to break the Army and Prorogue the late Parliament in this Kingdom, and therein gave pernicious Council to Her Majesty, and an Enemy to the King and Kingdom.

And the previous Question being demurred and put, That that Question be now put.

It was carried in the Affirmative.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of the House, That Arthur Earl of Anglesey was one of the principal Advisers of Her late Majesty to break the Army, and Prorogue the late Parliament in this Kingdom, and therein gave pernicious Council to Her Majesty, and an Enemy to the King and Kingdom.

Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to His Majesty, That he will be graciously pleased, for the Security of his Government, and the Protestant Interest of Ireland, to Remove the said Arthur Earl of Anglesey from his Council and Service in this Kingdom.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to prepare an Address to his Majesty upon the said Resolution, and on the Debates of the House; and a Committee was appointed accordingly.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, To ratify and confirm the Associations entered into by both Houses of Parliament, for the Preservation of His Majesty's Sacred Person, Royal Family and Government, and to oblige all Persons that have any Employments, Ecclesiastical, Civil or Military, to Subscribe the same; and that Mr. Joshua Allen, Mr. Sr. John Brodrick, and Mr. Attorney-General, do prepare and bring in the said Heads of a Bill.

London, February 1.

Yesterday arrived another Mail from Ireland.

Part of the House of Commons of Ireland.

Luna, Jan. 23. A Bill entitled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Additional Duty on all Wines and Strong-Waters and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and distilled of Wine, and also a Tax on Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Pensions therein mentioned, was presented to the House and read the first time, and ordered to be read a second time to Morrow Morning.

The Order for the Day being Read, That Gerard Burke, Esq; a Person active in promoting and procuring several Addresses in favour of Sir Constantine Phipps, do attend this House this Day, and the Sergeant at Arms being called upon to give an Account whether the said Mr. Burke attended, he informed the House that he did not attend; Then the Address from the County of Galway, in Opposition to the Address of the late House of Commons for removing Sir Constantine Phipps from his Employment, as also a Letter from the said Mr. Burke to Mr. Speaker, were severally read at the Table.

Resolved, That Gerard Burke, Esq; one of Her late Majesty's Council at Law, was the Author and Promoter of the said Address.

Ordered, That the said Gerard Burke be taken into Custody of the Sergeant at Arms attending this House, and committed to Newgate.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do send a Warrant to the Keeper of Newgate, to receive into his Custody the said Gerard Burke, him in prison, by or to Newgate, and keep until he be discharged by Order of this House.

Ordered, That the Sergeant at Arms attending this House do go with the Mace into the Lobby and Places adjacent, and Summon the Members to attend the Service of the House immediately.

And he went accordingly, and being returned,

Mr. Sr. John Brodrick reported that the Committee appointed to prepare an Address to his Majesty, That he will be graciously pleased, for the Security of his Government, and the Protestant Interest of Ireland, to remove Arthur Earl of Anglesey from his Council and Service in this Kingdom, had prepared an Address accordingly, which he read in his Place and after delivered at the Table, where the same was again read, and afterwards read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the House with some Amendments.

Resolved, That the said Address do stand the Address of this House to His Majesty.

March, Jan. 24. A Bill entitled, An Act to Retain the Person who during the Life of the late King James took upon him the Title and Title of Prince of Wales, and since the Decease of the said King James hath assumed the Name and Title of James the 3d. King of England and Ireland, and James the 8th. King of Scotland, commonly called the Chevalier de St. George, of the Pretender, and all his Adherents, and to give a Reward of 50000 l. Sterling to any Person who shall Seize and Secure the said Pretender, if he Lands or attempts to Land in this Kingdom, was presented to the House and read the first time.

And a Motion being made, That the said Bill be now Read a second time.

Ordered, Nemine Contradictente, That the said Bill be now read a second time.

A Motion being made, That a Book Entitled, A long History of a short Session of a certain Parliament in a certain Kingdom, contains in it many Reflections on the Proceedings of a certain House of Commons of this Kingdom, and several Paragraphs therein being read.

Resolved, Nemine Contradictente, That a Book Entitled, A long History of a short Session of a certain Parliament in a certain Kingdom, is a False, Scandalous and Malicious Libel, highly reflecting on the Proceedings and Honour of the late House of Commons.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to enquire who was the Author, Printer and Publisher of the said Book, and a Committee was appointed accordingly.

Ordered, That the said Book be burnt by the Hands of the Common Hangman before the Gate of this House on Saturday next at 12 a-Clock, and that the Sheriffs of the City of Dublin be required to see the same done accordingly.

Ordered, That John Kenedy, Esq; a Member of the late House of Commons, who signed an Address from the County of Longford in favour of Sir Constantine Phipps, in Opposition to the Address of the said House, do attend this House to Morrow Morning.

Dublin, Jan. 24. The Association of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, Entered into the 17th Day of Jan. 1715.

W E the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, taking into Our most serious Consideration the wicked and unnatural Rebellion broke out and still carried on in some Parts of Great Britain against the most Gracious, Just, and Best of Kings, contrary to the most Solemn and Religious Obligations, by which the Consciences of Men can be bound; And having a thorough Sense how much the Safety of Our happy Constitution in Church and State depends upon the Preservation of the Sacred Person of His Majesty King George; Do, for the Defence of the Established Church of this Kingdom, and the Protestant Interest of Europe, and for the maintaining the Ancient Government, and the Laws and Liberties of Great Britain and Ireland, hereby engage to Almighty God, and to one another, to assist and defend His most Sacred Majesty King George, Our only Lawful and Rightful Sovereign, and the Protestant Succession in His Royal House, with Our Lives and Fortunes, against the Person who during the Life of the late King James took upon him the Title and Title of Prince of Wales, and since the Decease of the said King James hath assumed the Name and Title of James the Third King of England and Ireland, or James the Eighth of Scotland, commonly called the Chevalier de St. George, or the Pretender, and all his Abettors; and never to be removed from this Cause until an End be put to the said Religion, Laws and Liberties shall be secured to Us, as not to be endangered by the said Pretender, or any of his wicked Adherents, who think themselves bound by their Religion and Principles to reduce Us to Popery and Slavery. And whereas the Person of His most Sacred Majesty, and the Person of His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, may be exposed to Danger, and to the curs'd Attempts of Papists, and other bloody Men; We do therefore solemnly Engage God, and one another, That if any such Attempts be made upon them, or either of them, We will pursue not only those who make it, but all their Adherents, and all that We find in Arms against His Majesty, or the Settlement of the Crown in His Royal House, with the most Severity of a just Indignation, until they are brought to condign Punishment: And that the Perpetrators of any such villainous and detestable Grimes (which God of His infinite Mercy prevent) shall not divert Us from prosecuting this Cause which We now undertake; so that it shall engage Us to carry it on with all the Vigour that so barbarous a Practice shall deserve.

never

To their Excellencies the Lords Justices of Ireland.
The Humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled.

Whereas the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled observing, with entire Satisfaction, the great Care which Your Excellencies have taken to preserve this Kingdom in Tranquillity, and to prevent the restless Malice of the Enemies of Our Peace from bringing their wicked Designs to Effect; do think it incumbent on Us to render to Your Excellencies Our hearty and unfeigned Thanks for the Vigilance and Prudence of Your Administration in these Times of Difficulty and Danger.

The Dispositions already made by Your Excellencies of those Forces which are in this Kingdom, and the Directions given to all Magistrates by Your Excellencies late Order in Council, to quicken them in the Execution of the Laws against Papists and disaffected Persons, might seem to take away all occasion of addressing Ourselves to Your Excellencies on either of those Subjects: Yet since We have reason to believe that the Pretender is actually landed in North Britain, We crave leave in this Manner to express Our Zeal and Concern for the Safety of His Majesty's Person and Government; desiring Your Excellencies to proceed in putting this Kingdom into the best Posture of Defence it is capable of, as the most proper Means to prevent intestine Commotions, and disappoint any Attempt that may be made against it from Abroad.

And tho' We have no Inclination, without great Necessity, to apply for the Execution of Penal Laws, yet Our Regard to the Preservation of Our religious and civil Interests, and the Peace of the Kingdom, oblige Us, at this Time to make it Our Request, that Your Excellencies will strictly require that the Laws in force against Papists, and more particularly those against Regulars, and all Persons of the Popish Religion exercising Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, be put in immediate Execution, as the most effectual Method to clear the Land from those Incendiaries and Promoters of the Pretender's Interest among the common People, whose Credulity leads them to an entire Dependancy on their Priests and Friars.

Brussels, Feb. 5. The Barrier Treaty which has been the Subject of so long Negotiation, is now entirely finished, the Ratifications thereof having been exchanged at Antwerp on the 31st inst, to the Satisfaction of all Parties. Yesterday the Councils of State and Finances were discharged from the Oath of Subordination which they had taken to the two Maritime Powers, whose Ministers remitted the Government of the Austrian Netherlands into the Hands of the Imperial Minister Count Collowseck, and this Day his Excellency was complimented thereupon by the Councils, the Magistracy, and Persons of Distinction.

London, February 1.

We hear that the Breach at Dagenham is now like to be stop'd, after the Misfortune of so many Persons, and so great Sums have in vain been spent upon it: For it is said that one Capt. Perry, an experienced Engineer, lately come from Holland, hath undertaken it, whose Method of doing it hath been examined by the Commissioners, and approved of by the ablest Engineers we have in England.

London, February 1.

Yesterday South-Sea Stock was 92 five eights to 92 seven eights. Bank 123 three quarters to 124 one quarter. India 131 one quarter to 131 three quarters. African 17.

Union, or Double Hand-in-Hand Fire-Office.

Attendance is continued to be given for Insuring Goods and Merchandizes (upon the like equal and advantageous Terms with the Hand-in-Hand Fire-Office for Houses) at the Clerk's Apartment in Black-Smith's-Hall near Old-Fish street, in the Forenoon, and at the Amsterdam Coffee-house behind the Royal-Exchange, in the Afternoon. N. B. The Directors have fully paid all the Claims made upon them for losses and Damages sustained at the late Fire in Mark Lane.

By His Majesty's Company of Comedians.

At the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane.
This present Wednesday, being the 21st of February, will be performed a Play called, Oroonoko. The Part of Oroonoko by Mr. Booth, Abasco Mr. Mills, Captain Driver Mr. Johnson, General Penkethman, Incinta Mrs. Oldfield, Widow Lachit Mrs. Henderson, Charlton Weldon Mrs. Bicknell, Lucy Weldon Miss Younger.

By Command.

At the King's Theatre in the Hay-Market.
This present Wednesday, being the 21st of February, will be performed an Opera call'd, Lucius Verus. With all the New Scenes and Cloaths. In which above 20 Songs are chang'd. The part of Lucius Verus to be perform'd by Signor Cavaliero Nicolino Grimaldi, Volvengo by Signora Diana Vico, Aniceto by Signor Giorgio Giacomoni, lately arriv'd, Arpalia by Signora Pilotti, Lucilla by Signora Elena Croce Viviani, lately arriv'd. The Pit and Boxes to be put together, and no Persons to be admitted without Tickets, which will be deliver'd out at the Theatre this Day, at Half a Guinea each. The Number not to exceed 400. Boxes upon the Stage 15s. The Gallery 8s. 6d.

By the Company of Comedians acting under Letters Patents granted by King Charles II.

At the Theatre in Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.
This present Wednesday, being the 21st of February, will be performed a Play call'd, The Spanish Fryar; or, The Double Deceit. To which will be added a New Farce call'd, The Cobby of Preiton. With a Dialogue between Mr. Leveridge and Mrs. Fitzgerald, and several Entertainments of Dancing.

Whereas Wm. Jones, aged about 30 Years, thin Village, with lank black Hair, about 5 Foot 8 inches high, a Dyer by Trade, born in London: Samuel Lloyd, aged about 24 Years, wears a light brown Wig, fresh colour'd, about 5 Foot 8 inches high, having formerly serv'd a Sailor on board the L' Moor: John Chambers, about 24 Years of Age, dark brown curl'd Hair, fresh colour'd, about 5 Foot 8 inches high, having formerly serv'd a Sailor on board the Stubby, born in North-Britain: James Soad, aged about 23 Years, having light brown lank Hair, fresh colour'd, about 5 Foot 10 inches high, born in North-Britain: John Hinton, fresh Complexion, with short brown Hair, a Labouring-Man, about 21 Years of Age, 5 Foot 7 inches high, born at Oundle in Northamptonshire: John Followen, wears a dark brown wig, having a blemish in his Eyes, about 5 Foot 9 inches high, by Trade a Taylor, born at Gravesend: Hath all deserted from Lieut. Coll. George Howard's Company in His Majesty's Third Regiment of Foot-Guards. If they do return to their Duty in 15 Days after this Advertisement, they shall be forgiven; otherwise whoever shall give Notice, so as they be secured, to Mr. Patterson, Agent to the said Regiment, at his House in Charles-street in St. James's, shall receive for each Man 40s. And whereas John Followen deserted with his Arms, if he will return and inform to whom he either pawn'd or sold his Arms, he shall be pardon'd his Desertion, and receive a Reward of two Guineas.

To be Sold.

The Mannor of Woolley in Somersetshire, with 2 Miles of the City of Bath, and about 8 Miles from Bristol, containing divers good Farms amounting together to about 250 l. per Annum Old Rents in Possession, and upwards of 50 l. per Annum howout on Tithes. Enquire of Mr. Dean, Attorney at Law, in St. Clement's-lane near Lombard-street, London; or of Mr. Webb, Attorney at Law, in the City of Bath; or of Mr. Kirby, Attorney at Law, in the City of Winchester; or of Mr. Raven, Attorney at Law, in Wiltshire in Dorchester; at any of which Places a Survey may be had.

A Catalogue of very valuable English Books, consisting of the best Modern Divinity, History, Miscellanies, Novels, Poetry, Plays, Travels, Voyages, Mathematics, Romances, &c. Neatly bound, and of the very best Editions. Which will be sold by Auction, at Will's (the Crown) Coffee-house in King-street, near Guild-hall, this Day, the 1st Instant, beginning every Evening at 5 a Clock, and will be continued till all are sold. By Samuel Illidge, Book-seller, under Searle's Gate, Lincolns-ton New-square, where Catalogues may be had gratis; also of Mr. Humphreys at the Dolphin in St. Paul's Church-yard; Mr. Richardson at the Corner of Swinburn-Alley near the Royal Exchange, Book-sellers; at Steel's Coffee-house in Bread-street, and at the Place of Sale.

Southam Cyder (truely neat) Rough or Mellow, a large Quantity, just imported from Devon; to be sold at Reasonable Rates, by the Hogshead or larger Quantity; now lying at Rock's Wharf. Enquire at Mr. Michael Luttell's at the George in the Bridge-Yard, Southwark.

This Day, the 1st Instant, at 9 in the Morning, at Exeter-Exchange in the Strand, will continue the Sale of Part of the Libraries of a late eminent Divine of London and a Schoolmaster, being valuable Books in Divinity, History, and Philosophical Learning, in Greek, Latin and English, especially modern English Divinity, with Manuscript Notes, Classics, Dictionaries, Lexicons and Grammars in several Languages; Lives, Latin and English, &c. with many Hundreds more in all Volumes. Sold very cheap. The Sale to continue every Day this Week. Catalogues are deliver'd at Mr. Fox's, Westminster-Hall, Mr. Skokes's against the Mew's Gate, at the Paulsgrave-Mead Coffee-House without Temple-Bar, Mr. Clement's in St. Paul's Church Yard, Mr. Crouch's at the Corner of Poppe's-Head-Alley, Book-sellers, and at the Place of Sale.

Tobacco, Sweet-scented, 48 Hogsheads, will be put up to Sale by the Candle, at the Crown Coffee-house behind the Royal-Exchange in Threadneedle-street, on Friday the 23d of February, at 3 of the Clock in the Afternoon; which are to be shown open at Parker's Gardens in Haydon-Yard near the Mint, till the time of Sale, where Catalogues are to be had.

For SALE by the CANDLE.

At the Marine Coffee-house in Birchington, on Friday the 23d Instant, at 5 a Clock in the Afternoon, Mr. Druggs, Broad-Church, Callamaces, Camlets, Shalloons, &c. made Clothes, Black and White Norwich Crapes, Persians, Third Satins, Mantuas, Black Silks, Poplins, Stuffs, &c. Being the remaining part of the Goods of Mr. John Dyton, Mercer, in the Strand, who has left off Trade. To be seen at Leadenhall-Hall within Bishopgate till the time of Sale, at a Warehouse belonging to Henry Currer. Arthur Mainwaring, Broker.

This Day is Published.

The Occasional Paper. N^o III. Contain^g 1. Protestant Principles concerning Civil Government. II. A brief Answer to the Charge of Sedition urg'd by the Papists against the Protestants in Germany. III. An Attempt to state Matters truly with Reference to our 30th of January. Sold by R. Baskin's at Amen-Corner, and J. Harrison at the Royal Exchange. Price 3d.

DON, Printed by S. GRAY, and Sold by R. BURLEIGH in Amen-Corner.

